

Donate

The March for Humanity is an unprecedented event in recent decades. The expense of accommodating hundreds of marchers is a heavy load for our modest capabilities. Expenses such as food, medicine, lodging, clothing, transportation, and administration continue to increase as the numbers of marchers grow. Your help will enable the marchers to complete their mission and demand justice for the murder of 1.5 million innocent human beings.

Financial help of any amount is welcome and will be listed on the Supporters page of our website. Those who wish to support with a contribution of $2,000 or more can take advantage of the below gratitude system.

Event Benefactor - $5000 and up
Business logo/name on MH website, all advertising, March clothing, and press releases

Event Sponsor - $3,000 - $4999
Business logo/name on MH website, all print advertising, March clothing, and press releases

Event Donor - $2,000 - $2999
Business logo/name on MH website, March clothing, and press releases

Event Contributor - $1 - $1999
Listed on the Supporters page of Marchforhumanity.org

MARCH FOR HUMANITY

104 North Belmont St. Suite 206

Glendale, CA 91206

WWW.MARCHFORHUMANITY.ORG

Ph: 818. 507.1933

Fax: 818. 240.3442

MARCH FOR HUMANITY

FRESNO | SACRAMENTO

Walking in Solidarity With the
1.5 Million Forgotten Victims of the Armenian Genocide

215 Miles

19 Days

1 Mission

Our Mission

Our goal is to put an end to the cycle of genocide plaguing humanity. We understand that in order to stop future atrocities from occurring, our first step must be to come to grips with past crimes against humanity. Thus, we have decided to march from Fresno to Sacramento throughout the month of April as a show of solidarity with the 1.5 million forgotten victims of the Armenian Genocide. We are calling on U.S. civic leaders to properly recognize and commemorate the 90th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide.

The Genocide

U.S. Archives

The deportation, starvation, rape, murder, robbing, and systematic annihilation of the Armenian population of the Ottoman Empire is well documented in the U.S. National Archives in Washington, DC. Diplomats such as Ambassador Henry Morgenthau constantly cabled reports to their superiors describing the process of extermination which was taking place in Turkey during World War I.

Recognition

Several countries have officially recognized the Armenian Genocide through legislation and state declarations, including most recently the Dutch Parliament, Canadian House of Commons, and the French National Assembly.

Executive Fear

Due to Turkish threats, every U.S. administration since 1982 has feared that properly recognizing the Armenian Genocide would offend the Turkish government. As a result, the executive branch has consistently opposed the passage of Congressional resolutions commemorating the Genocide and has objected to the use of the word "genocide."

The Future

The first step in preventing future genocides from occurring is to recognize past crimes against humanity. Only then can we take a firm stand against such atrocities in the future and ensure that their lessons are never forgotten.

The March

- April 2 – April 21
 - A total of 19 days
- Fresno, Calif. to Sacramento
 - A total of 215 miles
- Hundreds of Marchers
 - From across the country carrying banners and passing out flyers about the Genocide
- Sacramento Rally for Humanity
 - To be held at the State Capitol Building on April 21

The Marchers

Participants in the March for Humanity come from a wide variety of backgrounds. Some are students and young professionals, while others are artists and community activists. They have come forward to participate from all parts of California including San Francisco, Los Angeles, Fresno, and Orange County. What they all share in common is a dedication to humanity and preparedness to take injustice head on.